

CITY OF CHILLIWACK

Planner II

The City of Chilliwack takes great pride in its focus on facilitating a high quality of life through comprehensive long range planning and strategic community development initiatives and we are looking for a like-minded candidate to join our team.

Reporting to the Manager of Long Range Planning you will provide planning expertise to assist with the review and development of planning proposals, policy and plans to support the City's long range planning objectives.

This work involves:

- Reviewing existing policy, regulations, bylaws, and other planning tools and assisting in the development of new policy, and plans to address changing community needs
- Research and report writing on a wide range of topics related to long range planning
- Assisting in the compilation of information, and the interpretation of long range planning documents, required from both internal and external sources
- Meeting with and reporting on enquiries from members of the public regarding the City's growth management strategy and supporting policies, plans, and strategies
- Assistance with coordinating and facilitating public and or stakeholder meetings, and other activities that engage the public in planning processes
- Supervision of the work undertaken by Planner 1

We are looking for:

- Must have a degree in geography or community planning and five years of experience in a comparable or related position.
- A highly-motivated individual that is goal-oriented, and can work efficiently with a varied workload
- A critical thinker with a demonstrated ability to problem solve, and seek alternative solutions
- Someone that has a solid understanding of planning and development approvals processes, and their relationship with long range planning
- Sound knowledge of the principles, practices and objectives of urban planning
- Has excellent writing and graphics skills, and is able to synthesize information and present it in a concise, easy to read format

We offer a very competitive salary and benefits package for this unionized position, as well as a great work environment that prides itself on employee satisfaction.
